

International Mother Language Day

Nurturing our Mother Languages in the UK

a Families Get Together to enjoy each other's company

We shall invite teachers in our local Mandarin, Cantonese, Arabic, Greek, Polish, Spanish, Russian and other schools and classes to reflect on their work

Saturday 21st February 2015 10am to 12
Friends' Meeting House, The Friars, Canterbury
(near Marlowe Theatre. Public Parking in St Radigunds)
Fair Trade Tea, Coffee and Soft Drinks served on arrival

IML Day was first announced by UNESCO in 1999.
It is held annually on 21 February worldwide to encourage linguistic and cultural diversity and multilingualism.

More details from emiccanterbury@gmail.com
Walling1811@gmail.com

www.cantemic.co.uk